

McMillin's Family Friday

February 9, 2017

How can you support your child at home?

Set aside 20 minutes of reading time a day.

Ask your child to tell you what their "just right" reading level is.

Ask your child to tell about the book(s) they are reading.

Ask your child what their goal is in reading. What is your teacher teaching you in reading?

Read aloud to them

Here are five questions to ask your child the next time he or she finishes a book:

1. If you could give the book another title, what would it be?
2. Which characters would you like to meet in real life?
3. What do you wish was different about the ending?
4. Would the book make a cool movie? Video game? TV show?
5. What is one thing you could ask the author if you could talk to him or her?

And just for kicks, asking something like,

What do you think the author wants readers to remember most from this book?
or...

Was there one big lesson you took away from this book?
